Gentrification In Gowanus; The Stack Keeps On Stacking

Friday, July 19, 2013, by Hana R. Alberts

INWOOD—We can't get enough of Inwood's prefab(ulous) modular construction project Broadway Stack. We showed you videos of some of the 56 modules being stacked on top of each other to create the seven-story building, and checked in on the construction as it's shrouded in tarps. But did you know that these boxy bits are being piled on top of each other using only an eight-person crew and a single crane? When all is said and done (and stacked), there will be 28 apartments up for grabs. CurbedWire Inbox; [previously]
